do not know if the Govt are prepared to rescind the order already passed in regard to Mr. L. Rao.
But if Mr. Narasimha Rao returns before the end of this month & I inform the Comp-troller's Office, the Comptr may not find it necessary to recall Mr. L. Rao. JV

The Comptroller further informs that owing to the absence of his assist who has been deputed for work in the Secretariat during the absence of Mr Narasimhachar on other duty, the progress of the work of his Office with the Report on the Survey Accounts of Mysore for Ten years Financial is being affe and requests he may be sent back early. As Mr. Narasimhachar will return within a few days, I have add a para in the draft informing the Comptroller that his Assistant will be relieved of his duties in the Secretariat before the end of this month.

Office of the Comptroller, Mysore Government

Dated Bangalore, the 10th April 1905.

Rai. N.G. Basu Bahadur, M.A., Comptroller, Mysore Government.

B.K. Venkatavarada Iyengar, Esq.,

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

General and Revenue Departments.

I have the honour to invite your kind attention to Governme der No. Fl.4110/Gl.Fin.149-04-9 dated 3rd January 1905, sanctio ig the recommendation of the Comptroller to allow Examiner Mr. kshminarasimha Rao of this office to undergo a complete course training in the P. W. D., Railway and Military Accounts also, dition to his training in the Civil accounts.

The Examiner informs me in his letter of the 17th ultimo at his course in the Accountant General's office will be over ie 15th of May, and requests me to arrange for his further trai ig after that date. Personally, I have no objection to its bein ranged by the Government through the Residency, but I would r ctfully beg to represent to Government that the work of this o ce in many of its branches is very much in arrears, and in othe spects far from satisfactory, owing to the paucity of officers supervise them. I therefore think it my duty to state that it es not permit of the further deputation of its available offic anticipation of the amalgamation of other account offices wit . Unless the Central office is properly manned and its work ich has been allowed to drift into a chronic state of arrears ought well up to date, there is no use of taking up the work o months in each of the other offices, would not be of much practical use. I would therefore beg, under these circumstances that the Government may permit me to recall him to duty for charge of a branch of the office after his course in the Accountant General's office is over, and to drop for the present, the question of his training in the other account offices.

I take this opportunity respectfully to bring to your notice that I was given to understand that the deputation of Mr. Satyaraj Chetty to the Secretariat would be for a short time only not exceeding a month or five weeks but he has been retained for over three months and it is not yet known when exactly he may be returned. I need scarcely add that the absence of my Senior Assistant for so long a time immediately after my joining my new office has been seriously affecting the progress of important work like the Report on Savings Banks and the Review of Ten Years' Finances.
